Dear General Cabell,

In the absence of Mr. Bunche, who is in the Congo on a United Nations mission, I acknowledge receipt and thank you for your letter of 29 June. I will not fail to bring it to the personal attention of Mr. Bunche on his return to the office toward late summer.

Sincerely yours,

Lydia D. Fayon

Remarks:

The attached correspondence is from an unknown Italian who writes that he loves God and hates Marx. He states that he would like to serve God not only with words. He attached a rather naive anti-Communist propaganda leaflet which carries his name at the bottom.

Recommend no reply.
